PRINCE the national joy smoke ALBERT.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C. Copyright 1916 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

P. A. puts new joy into the sport of smoking!

YOU may live to be 110 and never feel old enough to vote, but it's certain-sure you'll not know the joy and contentment of a friendly old jimmy pipe or a hand rolled cigarette unless you get on talking-terms with Prince Albert tobacco!

P. A. comes to you with a real reason for all the goodness and satisfaction it offers. It is made by a patented process that removes bite and parch! You can smoke it long and hard without a come-back! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

Prince Albert affords the keenest pipe and cigarette enjoyment! And that flavor and fragrance and coolness is as good as that sounds. P. A. just answers the universal demand for tobacco without bite, parch or kick-back!

Introduction to Prince Albert isn't any harder than to walk into the nearest place that sells tobacco and ask for "a supply of P. A." You pay out a little change, to be sure, but it's the cheer-fullest investment you ever made!

and Mrs. Larkin Pennington.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stuckey, of Tampa, Fla., were here a few days the past week shaking hands with his old friends. Mr. Stuckey at one time was a conductor on the L. & N. R. R. with headquarters at Livingston. He is railroading in the South and pleased of his new home.—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Murphy are visiting relatives in Illinois this week.—Mr. and Mrs. O'Mary and children have returned from Knoxville after a month's visit with relatives in that city.—Dr. R. G. Webb is attending the State Fair at Louisville, this week.—Robert Griffin was at home from Paris, Sunday, visiting home folks.—Mrs. E. L. Cockerell and son, Brown, are in Louisville for a few days. Rice Walton was here Sunday and informed us that he got married the day before to a Miss Pittman, at Pittsburg, Ky. Rice is with a company doing surveying near Pineville.—We promise the readers of the Signal that when a certain wedding occurred we would tell them. This wedding came off Friday the 11th. The parties were Miss Essie Hansel and Mr. J. W. Higgins. Rev. Jones, of our town officiated. They left the next day for London, returning here Monday, and went to housekeeping. Mr. Higgins had already prepared his house for the reception of his bride. Monday night about 150 of the citizens gave them a charivari, which they will not forget soon. May their path be full of pleasure.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

This is a medicine that every family should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief, which it affords. Obtainable everywhere.

BRODHEAD

Drs. Grady and Carter performed an operation on Mr. Bradley child Thursday last week, showing a growth from the neck.—J. W. Owens resigned as Marshall of the town of Brodhead at a meeting of the Board last week, and Ben V. Riddle was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Owens. Mr. Riddle is right on the job and seems to be the right man in the Marshall's place. He is a brother of J. G. Riddle who served as Marshall of Crab Orchard for a number of years.—I. R. Storm returned from London last Friday, where he had been to see his daughter, Mrs. Jas. Baker, who was reported as dangerously ill. Her condition is much improved now.—Miss Catherine Albright, daughter of the late George Albright, died Thursday last week from tuberculosis.—The pie supper given by the Methodist church members, last Friday night, was a very successful affair the numbers being amply rewarded by liberal receipts.—Miss Elizabeth Gentry and Prof. J. L. Pugh attended the District Teachers' meeting held at Ottawa last Saturday.—The Rev. A. B. Poterf held regular services at the Methodist church, Sunday morning and evening. This meeting closed the conference year, and of course Mr. Poterf does not know that he will be returned here. Since his short stay here he has made many friends who will regret to see him and his estimable wife leave us. A strong effort is being made by our people to get Conference to send him back for another year at least.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Mary Anderson, of Lancaster, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tate, last Sunday.—Chas. Anderson, of Lexington, was a pleasant caller in our town the first of the week.—News reached us Monday that our good friend H. N. King, of Gum Sulphur and Miss Nannie Holcomb, of near this place, were married more than two weeks ago. We wish them much happiness.—Judge G. M. Ballard, Judge L. W. Bethurum, County Attorney E. R. Gentry, Cashier W. L. Richards, Will Fish and E. S. Albright, were here from Mt. Vernon, Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Collier, of Crab Orchard, were here a few hours Tuesday afternoon.—R. L. and Ed Smith were at the Stanford stock market, Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Albright, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Frith, Jake Elder, Dr. W. E. Grady, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt, Mrs. J. L. Pilkenton and daughter, Miss Lucile, Miss Clyde Watson, Everett Watson, R. L. Smith and John Robins, are among those attending the State Fair this week.—Frith Bros. sold an acre lot across Cherry Alley from the residence of A. M. Hiatt to O. R. Cass for $485.00. Mr. Cass will build on this lot next year.—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt were in Mt. Vernon, Tuesday, having dental work done.—W. H. Anderson, R. L. Smith, Sylvan Bordes, A. M. Hiatt and John Robins witnessed the conferring of the Master's degree on four candidates at Stanford, Monday night.—George Hardin, of Louisville, was here Wednesday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cass. He was returning from a visit to his sister in Bristol, Tenn.—Chas. Hurt underwent an operation at Lebanon the first of the week, having his tonsils removed.—O. R. Cass is holding down the second trick during Hurt's absence, and J. J. Painter is working in Cass's place.

COVE

OUR school with S. E. Chandler as teacher is getting along nicely.—We had a nice spelling match at our school house last Wednesday night.—J. G. Riddle was out from East Bernstadt last week and took in one day of the Maple Grove Association.—Mrs. Sam Bryant has been very ill for some time continues no better.—W. M. Hayes, of Berea spent from Saturday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Riddle.—Miss Minnie L. Riddle, of East Bernstadt, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home last week.—Mrs. Mack Blakeman and three little daughters of Jessamine county, are visiting her uncle, J. W. Riddle.—Elder J. W. Lee did not come to appointment at Chestnut Ridge last Sunday, but was filled by Elder J. W. Riddle.—Mrs. Flora Egan and Mrs. Minnie Moore, and Messrs. John, Jack and Henry Tredway, of Terre Haute, Ind., are all here on account of the illness of their sister, Mrs. Sam Bryant.—Mr. Steve Ramsey, who died at Mt. Vernon, Sunday night, was brought to this place for burial Monday. The services were conducted by J. W. Riddle.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tompkins visited Milt Baker from Saturday until Sunday.—R. B. Shepherd, who has been guarding on short line, between Cincinnati and Louisville, returned home last week.—Riffie Taylor, of Knox county, who has been visiting his uncle, Blake Taylor, returned home Sunday.—George Miller, who was crippled on the rail road some time ago is able to be out again.—Elder J. W. Riddle will preach at Buckeye the fourth Lord's day in this month, at 11 a.m. Everybody come out and let us have a reunion at old Buckeye.
